Please welcome Fr. Michael Olawuni

Fr Michael arrived Thursday evening from the diocese of Osogbo, Osun in Nigeria. This is a new diocese which was carved out of the diocese of Oyo to which Fr Joyzy belongs. Fr Michael will be studying at St. Mary's College in Moraga for the next two years working on a masters degree in Marriage and Family Therapy.

He was born November 30, 1983, the second of 4 children (two brothers and one sister). His father passed away when he was 7 years old, and his mother lives in Ile-ife, Osun with his younger brother. His older brother is currently working on his degree in agriculture at the University of Austin in Texas.

Fr Michael was ordained on December 17, 2011 and has already accumulated a great deal of pastoral experience, working as an associate in a large parish his first two years, then as a pastor of two other parishes, a director of pontifical mission societies, and the director of a diocesan pastoral center focusing on faith formation.

Welcome Fr Michael!

From Principal Jojo de Guzman:

This weekend our Eighth Graders are taking the High School Placement Test (HSPT). As progress reports are coming up, I would like to remind our families that a student's worth is defined by more than a grade or a test. I truly believe and I am thankful that each one of our hardworking teachers and staff are committed to work with you, the parents and guardians, to ensure that a St David School graduate is prepared for high school and beyond through faith and knowledge.

I look forward to seeing the community this weekend (Sat) for the Crab Feed.
