Have you ever wondered who cleans our place of worship every week? We do! St. David of Wales parish has a decades-long tradition of volunteers who clean the church, and Jackie Fonken has been coordinating this ministry for most of these years. She and all of our volunteers are so generous and loving in the way they make sure we have a clean environment to come into and pray. Thank you Jackie and all who volunteer for this selfless work. Here is a message from Jackie:

"You are invited to Join the Altar Society"

St. David's church is totally cleaned & cared for by volunteers. Each week just the usual jobs are done: Vacuuming, moping, dusting and cleaning the bathrooms are some of the duties.

Always 2 people scheduled and a turn comes about every 12 weeks. We need both men and women.

Please consider joining the team. Sign up sheets in the back of the church or call Jackie Fonken @ 510-232-9149.
