Fifty years ago on July 25, 1968 Pope Paul VI promulgated his Encyclical Letter HUMANAE VITAE. Although this letter is both insightful and prophetic, it has not been well received by the universal church. In today's scripture readings the Prophet Ezekiel is told: "And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house—they shall know that a prophet has been among them" (EZ 2:5), and in the gospel we hear that when our Lord went to his native place his own people took offense at him and "He was amazed at their lack of faith" (MK 6:6). Please take a new look at this document, which you can find in the book section on FORMED.org under the tabs: Read, Nonfiction, Current Topics. Fr John E Direen, Pastor
