Pastor's COLUMN

Thank you very much to all those who supported Fr Joyzy last week as he discussed his new position as Director of the Psycho-Spiritual Institute in Kenya, you raised $510 so far. Thank you also for responding to our own parish-ioner Dr. Raymond Chimezie, PhD, CHES® as we form a committee to consider how we can continue to support his ongoing ministry in Nigeria through the Health for Schools and Communities Foundation. There are many local, national and international needs, but having close connections to these needs reassures us that every gift and sacrifice we make is being put to good use.

We are contemplating chapter 6 of the Gospel of John for five Sundays in a row, from the 17th to the 21st Sundays of Ordinary Time. This includes the Bread of Life discourse and John’s theology of the Eucharist. This weekend we are in the middle of this chapter trying to understand why Jesus calls himself “the bread that came down from heaven” (JN 6:41). This teaching is essential to how we practice our Catholic Faith, and we should not take our understanding of the Eucharist for granted. In fact many Catholics have doubts about this sacrament as did the people who heard our Lord’s teaching when he explained it himself for the first time. If we do not immerse ourselves in this teaching and refuse to believe in what our Lord is telling us we risk becoming antichrists as we will hear at the end of this discourse: “As a result of this (teaching), many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him” (JN 6:66).

Wednesday, August 15th, is a Holy Day of Obligation as we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Masses at 8:15 a.m. & 6:30 p.m. (confessions 5:30 p.m.)
Fr John Direen, Pastor

“This session is packed with all kinds of great material. We’re going to examine the dogma of the Assumption of Mary, as well as the many facets of the identity of the woman in the Apostle John’s vision in Revelation 12. We’ll also learn how John’s vision in Revelation is the dramatic fulfillment of the promise God made back in the Garden of Eden: the ‘first gospel.’” (FORMED.ORG)
