A letter from Bishop Barber:

Aug. 16, 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The news we have been receiving about the horrible actions of priests, bishops and cardinals has stunned and disgusts me. Those who have harmed children and vulnerable adults must be held accountable. The bishops who refused to stop this immoral and criminal behavior must also be held accountable. I am shamed by the actions of these men and have vowed to work with all people of good will to make our Diocese a safe place for all.

To that end, we have policies and procedures in place mandating that every person who serves in our Diocese, whether clergy, religious, staff or lay volunteer, receives training in how to identify and stop predatory behavior. The Diocese of Oakland has a zero tolerance policy to the sexual abuse of minors on the part of anyone who serves the church. We also have staff which respond to each allegation of abuse, and have a loving and responsive team to assist survivors of clerical sexual abuse. We have an independent Diocesan Review Board composed of lay experts in psychology, police investigators, retired judges and abuse survivors, which examines complaints of misbehavior. I follow their recommendations.

I welcome the initiative of Cardinal DiNardo, President of the US Bishops Conference, whose August 16 statement (can be found at <http://www.usccb.org/news/2018/18-139.cfm>), to establish an investigation into questions surrounding bishops’ accountability, an opening of new and confidential reporting channels for complaints, proper independence and lay, not clerical, leadership of the process.

The love of Christ compels us to be better models of Jesus’ love, mercy, and healing. We must never violate the trust placed in us. As Bishop of Oakland, I promise there will be consequences for those who do.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

The Most Reverend Michael C. Barber, SJ
 Bishop of Oakland

In this week's session of TRUE REFORMERS, Saints of the Catholic Reformation, Dr. Christopher Blum will enlighten us on the life of St. Ignatius of Loyola, Soldier for Christ. At the time Martin Luther's interior troubles plunged Europe into turmoil, confusion and war, the Basque soldier Indigo Lopez de Loyola set out on an amazing pilgrimage of grace that would forever change his life. Ignatius had an intimate encounter with Christ which led him to offer a new spirituality of service to the Church and found the Jesuits who are dedicated to evangelization. Come and join us to learn more about the beauty and truth of our Catholic faith and be able to share it with others.
