DO NOT FORGET GOD'S COMMANDMENTS

"Blessed is the one who takes no offence at me." (MT 11:6)
 August 29th we celebrated the Memorial of the Passion of Saint John the Baptist. He was martyred for witnessing to the Truth even while imprisoned and threatened by King Herod. He sought our Lord's help in dealing with Herod: "When John heard in prison of the works of the Messiah, he sent his disciples to him with this question, 'Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?'" (MT 11:2-3). Our Lord's response did not free St. John from prison nor stop his beheading. St. John did not then exonerate himself from the work that was entrusted to him, nor did he ask for our Lord's resignation. On the contrary, he gave bold and faithful witness to our Lord who is the Truth even as it cost him his life on earth.

Last Sunday a couple of news agencies published a letter entitled TESTIMONY written by His Excellency Carlo Maria Viganò, Titular Archbishop of Ulpiana, and Apostolic Nuncio to the United States 2011-2016. On page 1 he states: "...if we truly want to free the Church from the fetid swamp into which she has fallen, we must have the courage to tear down the culture of secrecy and publicly confess the truths we have kept hidden." He also stated on page 1: "I always avoided making statements to the media, even when it would have been my right to do so." With these two statements the Archbishop hangs himself. He knew he had the obligation and the right to make known to the public all the knowledge he had about abuse and corruption taking place amongst catholic bishops in the United States. Instead he exonerates himself by stating in one example after another that he passed his knowledge on to his superiors, even to Pope Francis as early as June 23, 2013. When he did not get the response he sought, he began to consider "the trap" (p. 8). Five years later, armed with massive truth wound tight, the Archbishop unleashes a cowardly attack on Pope Francis calling for his resignation (p. 11).

Archbishop Viganò could have followed the example of St. John the Baptist and been faithful to the mission entrusted to him as the pope's ambassador to the United States, boldly letting everyone know about the abuse and corruption in the catholic church here in the United States, even if it should cost him his career. Instead he chose to keep his head and followed the example of Judas Iscariot, "... and from that time on he looked for an opportunity to hand him over." (MT 26:16).

Do not be fooled by the bishops, archbishops and cardinals who also call for the pope's resignation. 2000 years ago you would find these same individuals in the crowd shouting: "Let him be crucified!" (MT 27:23). In today's gospel our Lord warns us: "Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written: This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me..." (MK 7:6).

Article
The Catholic Voice
September 3, 2018

By Most Rev. Michael C. Barber, SJ

When I visited UC-Berkeley earlier this year and met with a large group of Catholic students for a discussion, the first question they asked me was “What do I tell my Catholic friend who no longer practices his faith because of the scandals in the Church?”

Many Catholics have had their faith shaken by the recent revelations in Pennsylvania, the scandalous behavior of an American cardinal and the recent letter from the former Apostolic Nuncio to the United States. Here’s how I answered the students. When the famous English theologian and academic John Henry Newman converted to the Catholic Faith in 1845, his closest Anglican friends asked him “How can you join a Church which has such a history of corruption?”

He responded that the Church is a Divine institution in human hands. And humans are sinners. He also said that Christ himself knew there would be sin and corruption in the Church, therefore he purposefully chose Judas Iscariot as one of his apostles. So we can trace corruption right back to the origin, yet also show that “Where sin prevails, grace prevails all the more.” Christ also preached the parable of the wheat and weeds, to show that both would exist in the Church.

Yet that’s not the end of the story. Christ has destroyed sin, and death.

I also told the students that I’ve been in the Navy Reserve for 27 years. Every year about 50 admirals, generals and commanding officers of ships and bases are removed for misbehavior, ethical violations, criminal activity or “loss of confidence in ability to command.”

Yet we do not dismiss all commanders as criminal. One of my duties as chaplain is to visit the brig: the “jail” on a ship or Navy base.

Many of the prisoners are serving sentences for child abuse in their own families. Yet we do not say all sailors and Marines are abusers. We don’t say the Navy and Marine Corps is evil. No. We point out that the majority of sailors and Marines, and soldiers and airmen, are good and loyally serve our country every day: putting their lives on the line in many instances. In addition, we have real heroes in the military and recognize them with the Congressional Medal of Honor.

So too in the Church. The majority of our priests serve you faithfully every day in every parish in our dioceses. We have heroes in the Church we call saints: like Mother Teresa and St. John Paul II.

There is no excuse for the priests who have committed crimes against innocent children. There is no excuse for bishops who have covered up these crimes or abetted them by transferring abusers to other parishes. This is evil.

The difference between the military and the church is that the military has a good accountability system. The Church does not. And we need to fix that now.

I endorse the call of Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo of Galveston-Houston, president of the US bishops, to the Holy Father to establish an independent, lay-led review board that will address complaints against bishops. In regards to the scandal of Archbishop Theodore E. McCarrick and the revelations of Archbishop Carlo Maria Viganò, we need such a board or commission to find the truth. Perhaps this could be the existing National Review Board. Whatever group is set up, it needs to find out “who knew what; and when did they know it?” They need access to all the relevant documents, most of which are protected as “Papal Secrets.” They need to interview priests who worked in the Roman Curia and U.S. diocesan offices, who also would be released from the “Papal Secret” and allowed to testify.

We need to find out the truth. Only the truth will set us free. And only the pope can authorize the steps that need to be taken to find the truth.

But there is action I can take as bishop of our diocese.

In Oakland, I am calling for an independent outside audit of our Diocesan Review Board policies, to ensure we are faithfully following the precepts of the Dallas Charter, the procedures to investigate sexual abuse by clergy. I also am going to review the membership of the current Diocesan Review Board to make sure it has the number of lay experts we need in the fields of law enforcement, the judiciary, parents, a clinical professional specializing in treatment of childhood trauma and survivors. In addition to these actions, I am inviting all priests, religious and lay faithful of the diocese to join me in a Novena to St. Joseph, patron of the Universal Church, from Sept. 6-14. We will distribute a Novena prayer to be read at all Masses every day.

On Sept. 14, the Feast of the Triumph of the Holy Cross, I call all of us in the diocese to a Day of Prayer, Penance and Reparation for the sins members of the Church have committed against innocent children. I ask our priests to hold a Holy Hour with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in each parish at a convenient time, to pray in reparation, for healing for the victims, and for the cleansing and reform of the Church and her ministers.

I invite us all to do penance that day, especially my brother priests: to fast and make other personal sacrifices in reparation for the pain suffered by the innocent. As Pope Francis said in his "Letter to the People of God:" "The penitential dimension of fasting and prayer will help us as God's People to come before the Lord and our wounded brothers and sisters as sinners imploring forgiveness and the grace of shame and conversion." In addition, I have been receiving many letters and emails asking me to stand up for the truth and not be afraid to speak out in front of all the bishops on the need for reform. May I also ask you to pray for this intention in the novena and day of reparation?

On the Feast of the Holy Cross, we will stand with Mary at the foot of her son's cross, so that we can grow in the graces of compassion, justice, prevention, reparation — and strength to reform the Church.

ST. JOSEPH PRAYER FOR PROTECTION & RENEWAL OF THE CHURCH

To you, St. Joseph we bring our broken hearts and all of the discouragement that weighs us down. Impurity and scandal have wounded our Church and have brought much shame, sorrow and tears. We ask you dearest St. Joseph, to be our guide along this very dark path, for you are the model of faith, purity and devotion that we need so desperately. May the Lord send forth the burning fire of the Holy Spirit, and renew the face of the Church, and the world. O St. Joseph, pray ceaselessly for the Church during this time of suffering and great mourning. May this current pain inflicted upon the Church be transformed by the power of Christ's cross, and lead to further renewal and continued purification. Amen.

ORACIÓN A SAN JOSÉ PARA LA PROTECCIÓN Y RENOVACIÓN DE LA IGLESIA

Traemos ante ti, San José, nuestros corazones quebrantados y todo el desaliento que nos agobia. La impureza y el escándalo han herido a nuestra Iglesia y han traído mucha vergüenza, tristeza y lágrimas. Queridísimo San José, te pedimos que seas nuestro guía en este camino tan oscuro, pues tu eres el modelo de fe, pureza y devoción que necesitamos desesperadamente. Pedimos que el Señor envíe el fuego ardiente del Espíritu Santo y renueve la faz de la Iglesia y del mundo. Oh, San José, ruega incesantemente por la Iglesia en este tiempo de duelo y sufrimiento. Que este dolor actual infligido a la Iglesia sea transformado por el poder de la cruz de Cristo y conduzca a una renovación y purificación continua. Amen.
