Pastor's COLUMN

Our Lord's glory continues to reveal itself to us as an ongoing epiphany on this 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time. Last Sunday we celebrated the Baptism of our Lord and today we contemplate in the gospel of John his first public miracle. At the intervention of our Blessed Mother Jesus changes water into wine as a sign that when his hour comes (his death and resurrection) he will make us divine. Jesus became human so that we can become divine (St. Augustine).

Please join us on the 15th Annual Walk for Life in San Francisco next Saturday. If you would like to travel together on BART please feel free to meet in front of the church at 11 a.m. We can carpool to BART. If you cannot join us please consider other options to participate : <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/resources/index.cfm>

We look forward to Catholic Schools Week which will kick off on Sunday, January 27th. Please join us that day for Open House at the school. The event will include Holy Hotcakes, tours and a Scholastic Book Fair. Please join us and invite your neighbors, family & friends.

St. David Book Club - Wednesday 1/23/2019 at 7 PM

(right after the evening Mass), in the JPPII Room (across the street from the church). We have begun our study of Revelation, with the help of commentary by Catherine A Cory, professor of theology at the Univ. of St. Thomas, in St. Paul, MN. We read a scripture passage aloud and then comment. Revelation, full of colorful and challenging images, really needs to be discussed. Please join us.

Monthly Movie Matinee (Sun Jan 27 @ 1215)

This month we show "Joseph of Nazareth". Only a little is written about Joseph, Jesus' foster father, in the Bible. This film (2000, Ignatius Press) tries to define the Joseph figure by filling in some plausible details. Joseph is a witness, master carpenter, good uncle for his nephews, honest believer, admirable friend, and most of all a loving member of the holy family.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!
