Graduale Romanum Introit (ABC= Psalm 24:15,16 +1-2) *Oculi mei * semper ad Dñm, quia ipse evellit de laqueo pedes meos: respice in me, et miserere mei, quoniam unicus et pauper sum ego. PS. Ad te Dñmine levavi animam meam: Deus meus, in te confido, non erubescam.* (My eyes are forever turned towards the Lord; for he shall release my feet from the snare; look upon me and have mercy on me, for I am abandoned and destitute. PS. Unto you, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; O my God, I trust in you, let me not be put to shame.)

GR Offertory (ABC= Psalm 18:9,10,11,12) *Iustitiae Dñmini * rectae, laetificantes corda, et dulciora super mel et favum: nam et servus tuus custodiet ea.* (The ordinances of the Lord are right, bringing joy to all hearts, sweeter than honey or the honeycomb. Therefore your servant will observe them.)

GR Communion (BC= Psalm 83:4,5) *Passer * invenit sibi domum, et turtur nidum, ubi reponat pullos suos: altaria tua Dñmine virtutum, Rex meus, et Deus meus: beati qui habitant in domo tua, in saeculum saeculi laudabunt te.* (The sparrow has found herself a home, and the turtle dove a nest in which to lay her young; at your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God! Blessed are they who dwell in your house, they shall praise you for ever and ever.)

General Instruction of the Roman Missal # 45 (Mar 2003)

Sacred silence also, as part of the celebration, is to be observed at the designated times. Its purpose, however, depends on the time it occurs in each part of the celebration. Thus within the Act of Penitence and again after the invitation to pray, all recollect themselves; but at the conclusion of a reading or the homily, all meditate briefly on what they have heard; then after Communion, they praise and pray to God in their hearts.

Even before the celebration itself, it is commendable that silence to be observed in the church, in the sacristy, in the vesting room, and in adjacent areas, so that all may dispose themselves to carry out the sacred action in a devout and fitting manner.

Pastor's COLUMN

The movie Unplanned, which is Abby Johnson's powerful story of conversion, opens the weekend of March 29th. As you may know, Abby was named Planned Parenthood's Employee of the year in 2008 but when she was asked to be present while an abortion was taking place, her heart changed instantly and since that time, she has become a leading activist in the pro-life movement. This movie can help end the Culture of Death and the timing of the release is providential in light of recent legislation allowing "abortion" during birth. See the link to the trailer below.

Please promote this powerful movie to everyone you know and encourage them to see it on the opening weekend to keep it in the theaters. It is also suggested to go in groups so you can discuss it afterwards.

NOTE: This movie was given an "R" rating by the motion picture rating academy due to the violence of the procedure....interesting to note that a 12-15 year old girl cannot see the movie without a parent but she can be taken to Planned Parent and have this procedure done to her without a parent. Link to the trailer:

Anyone who has participated in abortion or troubled by the movie, can find support thru After the Choice Ministry: <https://www.oakdiocese.org/ministries-formation/life-and-justice/respect-life/after-the-choice-ministry>

We will show "Amazing Grace" (2006), which chronicles British efforts around the turn of the 18th-19th century to pass laws abolishing the slave trade. The proposals were voted down for years, despite evidence of horrible conditions on slave ships. The famous poem Amazing Grace was composed by a reformed slave trader, played masterfully in this movie by Albert Finney.
