“Brothers and sisters: For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery. For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love.” (Gal 5:1,13)
 Our second reading this 13th Sunday of Ordinary Time reminds us that with freedom comes responsibility. Our Lord resolutely begins his journey to Jerusalem in today’s gospel, to fulfill the mission God the Father gave to Him: our salvation! This gift from God frees us from slavery to sin and death. We are now able and invited to live in harmony with God, and therefore with one another. But with this new found freedom comes the responsibility to accept our Lord’s invitation to follow him as resolutely as He completes His mission. We cannot be half-hearted disciples and expect to be our Lord’s coheirs in the Kingdom of Heaven. We help each other by placing the mantle of genuine love on one another, with steadfast hearts for the Lord and both eyes on the treasure that awaits us in heaven. Thank you for the privilege of being your pastor these past 3 years. You made it easy for me because of your sincere love for the Lord, your strong faith, and your generous efforts to participate in the work our Lord entrusts to us at St. David of Wales Church and School. May God reward you! Fr John Direen, Pastor
